ST. GEORGE TEMPLE.

—o—

It has been decided, in Council, that the Temple at St. George shall be closed from the 15th of September until the 1st of November, 1878.

WILFORD WOODRUFF.

Salt Lake City, August 1st, 1878
—Deseret News.

The managers of the Ladies' Co-op. Store at Harrisburg, Utah, have an eye to business, as will be seen by their advertisements.

"At the Ladies' Co-op in Harrisburg town, Articles needful and nice may be found. Give us a call when passing along; To purchase, we're sure you'll not hesitate long. adv.

The other day a man who was purchasing an axe at the store, picked out the smallest he could find, and when asked why he done so, replied; "well, my wife has had very poor health lately, and if I get a larger one I am afraid she can't cut the wood."

We are pleased to note the proceedings of Bp Winsor's birth-day festival on the 19th inst. We could give quite a lengthy report, but want of space forbids, therefore we must be contented with stating that we had a good supper, suitable speeches, music by Thompson's Brass Band, and toasts, yet one didn't wish to 'toast' him as he considered him 'toasted' enough this hot weather. All wished Bp. Winsor and family many happy returns of the day. The guests seemed to enjoy themselves well.

We are pleased to acknowledge receipt of the Pioche Weekly Record, a live paper, up to the times.

Prest. L. J. Nuttel of Kanab stake is in town, accompanied by Bp. Johnson, both looking well. They report all moving along peaceably, have had considerable showery weather in that part of the country, with cool nights. General health prevailing.

WITHDREW.—Wm. A. Perkins, on the 21st. inst., withdrew from the Bachelors' list and bound himself with the bonds of 'Matrimony.' We wish you both all the enjoyment in life your hearts can desire.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisements in this issue. Read them and remember that 'All those who advertise, are the firms to patronize.'

The weather is very changeable. It has rained nearly all around St. George and has only given us a nice sprinkling since last issue.

Fruit is reported to be so abundant at the Santa Clara that the people are not able to secure it all, for want of assistance.

We know a man in this county who undertook to "run" his business without advertising. He gave it up at last, however, and his first advertisement was headed "Sheriff's Sale."—Ex.

The Editor and Lawyer—the Devil is satisfied with the copy of the former, but requires the original of the latter.

In speaking about men not being able to read their own writing, our imp said; "Oh, well; that's nothing for the devil"

Our neighbor aroused his wife from a sound sleep, the other night, remarking; "Sally, I have seen a ghost, and it was in the shape of an ass." "Oh, let me sleep" replied the irate dame, "and don't be frightened at your own shadow."—Ex.

Wanted—Delinquent subscribers to settle up. P. S.—In answering this advertisement please state what paper you saw it in.—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

Our 'Devil' having an experience of working for nothing and boarding himself, now instructs the Editor.

He who blackens others does not whiten himself.

TENDER FEET. One table spoonfull of carbonate of Soda dissolved in half a pint of cold water is a good remedy for tender feet. The feet are to be sponged night and morning.

He who betrays another's secret, because he has quarreled with him, was never worthy of the name of friend; a breach of kindness will not justify a breach of trust.

DEATHS.

In Monroe Township, Mo., July 23, 1878, FRANKIE, infant son of James B. and Emma C. McLain, aged 1 year, 3 months and 10 days.

Dear Frankie's gone, yes gone to rest,
Where sickness he'll ne'er see;
He now has left this wicked world,
For a home from sorrow free.

Those little lips had just began
To lisp his mamma's name;
Those bright blue eyes to look so glad
Whenever papa came.

We know 'tis hard to give him up,
But why, dear sister, mourn?
The Savior said, while yet on earth,
"To me let children come." A. D. H.

In this City, August 21, 1878, DAVID JARVIS MILNE, Son of David and Ann C. J. Milne, aged 7 years, 1 month, and 18 days.

Mourn not, dear friends, though your child has gone,
Whom ye all do dearly love;
Prepare for the resurrection morn,
When we all shall meet above.
His body enjoys the sweetest rest,
While his spirit mingles with the blessed.
